Jack Milroy and Rikki Fukton played the two Glasgow Teddy boys, Francie and Josie. They appeared in the Five Past Eight Show which toured the theatres of Scotland in the late fifties and sixties.

A group of women having a drink in the Haymarket bar in 1960, before they go to the dancing at the Palais de Danse. The woman in the back left of the photo has a combed-back hairstyle.

There is a wireless for customers to listen to. On the shelves are various products for sale, such as, Blue Double Edge Gillette Blades, hair tonics and creams. Photo courtesy of Edinburgh Collected.

I used Brylcreem. It kept my hair in place but it was very greasy. I changed to Vitalis and it was much better. Says Jimmy McCrindle
